

GPS Denial and RF Blackouts Paralyze Disaster Reconnaissance

- Mountain valleys cause sudden video blackouts
- Dense canopies block satellite GPS signals
- Centralized telemetry risks single-point failure
- Manual scanning delays survivor emergency rescue
- Enterprise drones cost over $50,000 each

OFFICIAL RESEARCH & AUDIT SOURCES

NDMA FIELD
AUDIT

DISASTER
REPORT

Wayanad & Kedarnath Disaster After-Action Review

Over 70% of single commercial UAV flights stalled due to mountain multipath and deep valley RF link loss.

IEEE
RESEARCH

DOI:
10.1109/TCCN

IEEE Transactions on Cognitive Comms (Bourtsoulatze et al.)

Proves conventional H.264/OFDM video suffers complete "Digital Cliff" blackouts when channel SNR drops below threshold.

GOVT RTI
AUDIT

PROCUREMENT
DATA

CAG Defense & Security UAV Procurement Records

Enterprise reconnaissance drones cost $50,000–$250,000 each with single-GCS dependencies preventing multi-sq-km scaling.

